SPH people . . .

They recognize the worth of a friend,
for in friendship there is love;
in love there is peace.
They laugh, they cry
being themselves in this world
they call their own.
They find joy in doing, saying, and giving.
They are able to accept both victory
and defeat in stride.
They are finding themselves
through a search for others
They accept today
but challenge tomorrow.
They dream the impossible dream
and make it a happening.
They reach for the unreachable star
and they find it.

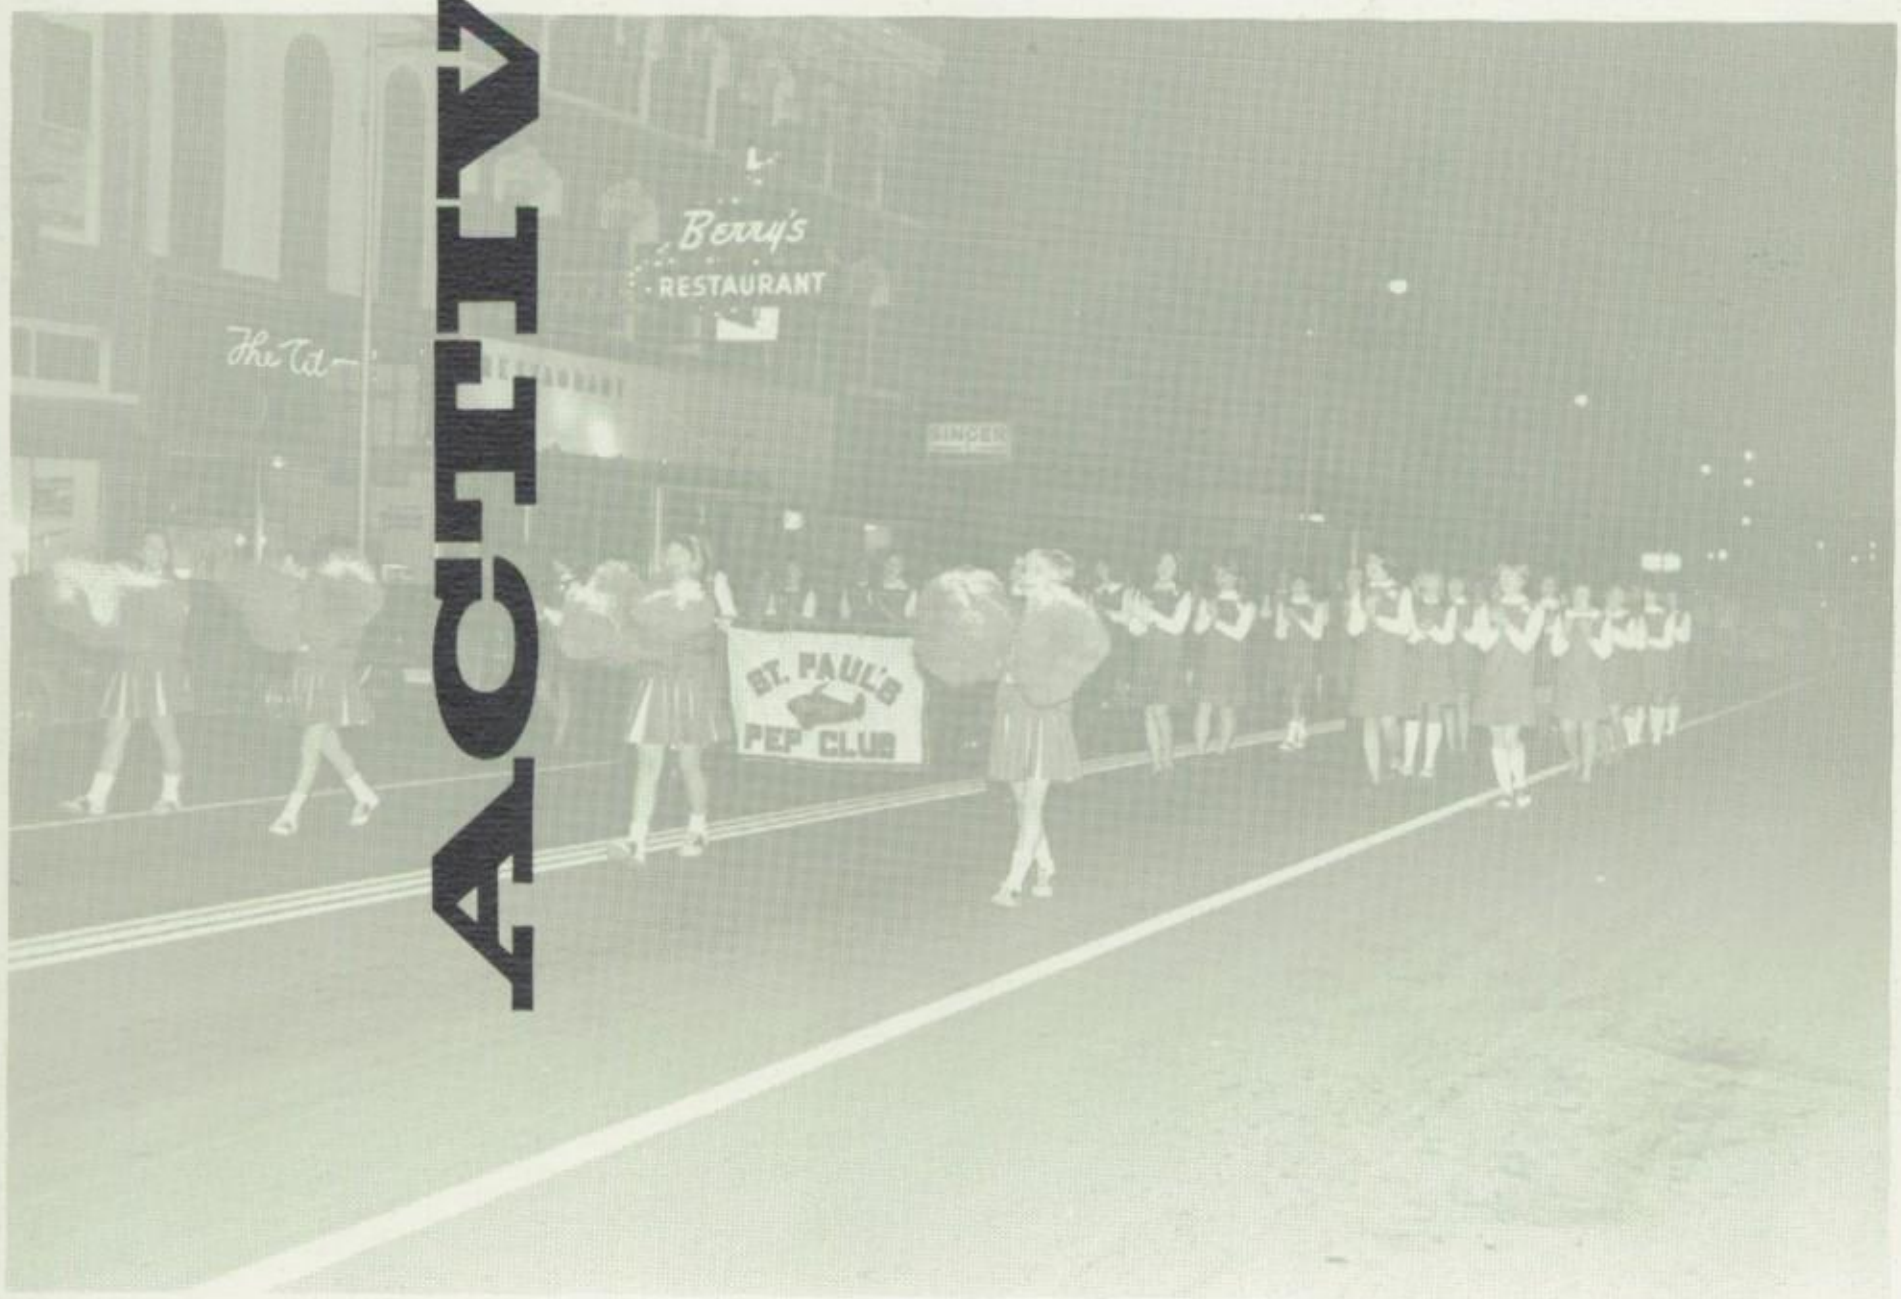
ACTIVITIES



Student Council Encourages Participation and Unity

(Right) Student Council representatives happily take ten from their classes for a casual pose. Left to right (standing) are Myra Patchen, Kathryn Rekart, Martha Hay, John Ridge, and Ann Esker. Seated are Timothy Lucas, William Seck, and Daniel Schaffer. (Below) Under the guidance of Principal Father William Bodart and Mr. John Bergan, Student Council moderator, Student Council officers discuss the upcoming meeting. Left to right are Michael Wasiniak, treasurer; Ann Esker, corresponding secretary; Deborah Rushin, president; Susan Fish, recording secretary; and Steven Bleile, vice-president.

Experimental Retreat Sparks Communication and Brotherhood

Under the direction of Rev. Duane Doughty, OSF, of Carey, Ohio, Paulites experienced an "Experiment in Communications" as this year's retreat. Inter-group discussions instead of speaker-to-group discussions were emphasized as students attempted to understand themselves through others.

SPH Clubs Activate Student Spirit and Participation

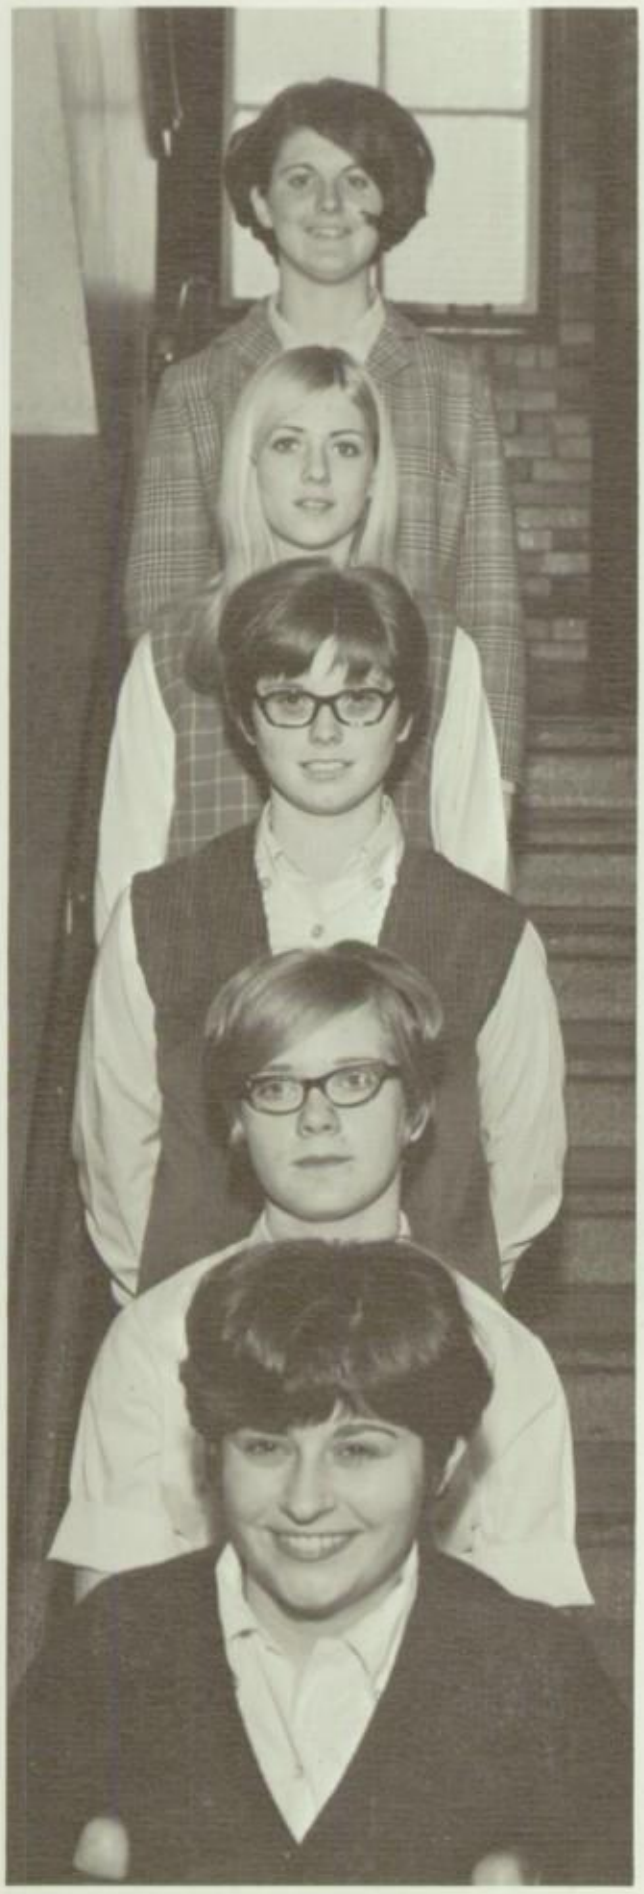
HOME of the ST. PAUL FLYERS

Clubs Peak Participation in Sports



(Extreme left) Posed in the entrance way to the "Home of the Flyers", the Varsity Club officers take a break from their active life. Left to right are Richard Missler, sergeant-at-arms; Steven Missler, treasurer; David Wasiniak, president; Thomas Weisenberger, secretary; Bradley Tinker, sergeant-at-arms; and David Heyman, vice-president. (Extreme lower left) GAA's annual Holy Cross-Notre Dame game left the Irish as hard-fought victors. Winners are from left to right (kneeling) Mary Schlacter, Margaret Brown, Nancy Kluding, Katherine Tinker, Mary Kluding, Mary Ann Meesig, and Joanne Schaffer. Standing are Kay Wagner, Kathryn Rekart, Jacalyn Fisher, Michelle Mushett, Kathleen Bick, and Patricia Reed. (Left) Vigorous GAA officers helped to enliven the world of feminine sports at SPH. From top to bottom are Patricia Fleming, president; Jacalyn Fisher, vice-president; Sally Kocher, secretary; Sharon Hipp, treasurer; and Sally Wagner, point secretary. (Above) urging the team on to a victorious season, Pep Club officers Gretchen Sharbaugh, Kathleen Bick, Dianne Hansburger, and Nancy Hohler render their services in tacking up signs.

Homecoming Accelerates Firelands Crown and 10 - 0 Season

Students and alumni of SPH participated in the '68 Homecoming week-end with enthusiasm and anticipation. Sparks of spirit originated at the bonfire, continued through the parade, soared while defeating Western Reserve, and were gently extinguished with the dance and the closing of Homecoming. Homecoming and winning seem to have become an SPH tradition.

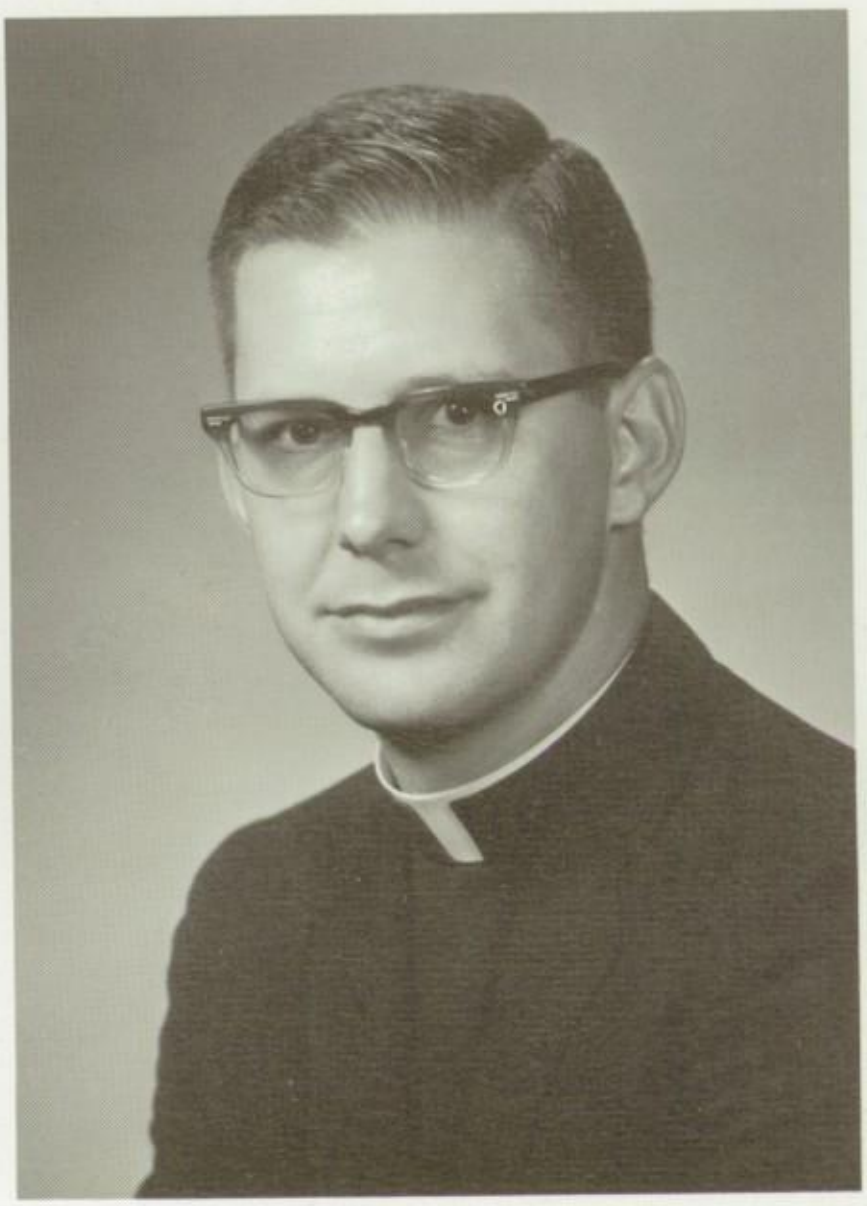
FACULTY & ACADEMICS

Dedication, Acumen, and Involvement Mark SPH Administrators

Reverend Gerald M. Stein

This year St. Paul's welcomed newly appointed pastor, Reverend Gerald M. Stein, as a personal friend, pastor, and spiritual director. Material evidence of Father's concern can be seen in many parish innovations. In addition to Father's responsibilities as administrator, he has also shown great interest in the youth of the parish. SPH students acknowledge Father's generous efforts with sincere gratitude.



Reverend William D. Bodart

As chief administrator of SPH, Reverend William D. Bodart incorporated many ideas in the high school system, reaching for an ideal level of communication between the students and the administration. Through his efforts he has become the friend of the students as well as their principal. The Class of '69 is the first graduating class which he, as principal, has seen progress through four years of high school. We are sincerely grateful to Father for his guidance and friendship.
